COX WANTS LOWERED
CHILD LABOR AGE TO 16

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 19.—With a special message amending the proclamation under which they had been called to meet, the two Houses of the Ohio Legislature convened in Extra Session this forenoon. All officers of the previous organization held over and both Houses got down to business by first reading the special message.

Governor Cox in amending the proclamation urges legislation for flood protection and prevention and commends a measure prepared by John McMohan, of Dayton, dean of the Ohio bar. It had been made into bill form and copies of the proposed measure were laid on all desks.

Other subjects upon which legislation is recommended are: Provisions for supplying lost state warrants; change in manner of selecting trustees of Delaware and Wooster universities; governing police judge in Seneca county; changes in the child labor code to permit girls over 16 years of age to work in various industries. The present code limits the workable age to 18 years. Legislation is also urged covering the activities and powers of sealers of weights and measures and to provide for an adequate Ohio exhibit at the Panama Exposition.

NOTHING DOING

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, January 19.—The general assembly will not be asked by Governor Cox to amend the Workmen's Compensation law to define "willful act".

Attorney General Hogan announced today that he had given the opinion to the governor that little trouble will arise under the present law.

Columbus, O., January 19.—Thirteen administration bills were introduced today in the Senate. Senator Hudson introduced a bill to establish a standard for rural schools.

WILL PROTECT PHILIPPINES BY EUROPE'S GUNS

By Associated Press.

Washington, January 19.—By a joint resolution introduced today by Senator Overman, the president would be required to take up the matter of a treaty with European powers for the neutralization of the Philippine islands, and to protect an independent government there when established.

It is set forth that the purpose is to cease exercising control over the islands as soon as may be done with honor, and to establish an independent government there.

The treaty provides that when established it is to be preserved by the European powers.

STEAMER AGROUND

DREYFUS' FRIEND
IS DEAD IN FRANCE

By Associated Press.

Armies, France, Jan. 19.—General Marie-Georges Picquard, commander of the Second French Army Corps, who was one of the most prominent figures in the Dreyfus case, died here today, aged 60 years. He was regarded as one of the most brilliant men in the Army and attained high rank at early age. His great powers as a linguist and soldier led to his appointment on the general staff. While serving there he discovered the forgeries which brought about the condemnation of Dreyfus, then confined on Devil's Island.

Picquard became one of the most enthusiastic appellants seeking a revision of the judgment. His zeal led to his arrest and imprisonment on charges, which were later dismissed for lack of evidence.

COULDN'T STAND
PARENTAL RULE

By Associated Press.

Warren, Ohio, January 19.—Miss Birdie Francis, 18, of Bristolville, O., committed suicide here last night because her father would not permit her to go buggy riding yesterday.

She was to have been married this week.

BILL TO FORCE
ALL-STEEL CARS

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., January 19.—Legislation to force the use of all steel cars was taken up today in the House. Representative Esch's bill, to replace all wood cars with steel cars in four years was opposed by George A. Post, president of the Railway Business Association. Post recommended that the Interstate Commerce Commission be empowered to determine the kind and character of cars and the time limit.

KLING RELEASED

By Associated Press.

Cincinnati, January 19.—August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati Baseball club, announced that John Kling, who was with the team last season, had been given an unconditional release. Kling had an agreement with the club that he be released outright as he did not want to play this year.

CAMPAIGN BULLETINS

This is the Rest Day of the Simultaneous Evangelistic Campaign. Services in all churches will begin again tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Services in local business houses and billiard halls will be a feature of the week. Several of the leading stores have extended an invitation to the committee to conduct meetings in their buildings, and a number of services are being arranged for.

The cottage prayer meetings will be held at nine o'clock Tuesday morning through the city. It is urged that as many as possible attend these services, which will be limited to thirty minutes' duration. If you are in doubt where to go, telephone your pastor, or the executive headquarters at the Y. M. C. A. building.

Plans are being completed for the Sunday school parade next Saturday afternoon. It is expected that at least one thousand children will be in line. The parade will be formed by Judge Reil Allen, who has kindly consented to act as master of ceremonies.

Next Sunday will be "Everybody to Church" Day in this city, and will be observed as a monster rally date for the campaign. This week, "stickers", with the slogan, "Everybody to Church" will be pasted on all packages of merchandise, delivered by local stores.

John Callahan, the famous Bowery mission worker of New York, one of the most noted speakers to men in this country, will be the feature for next Sunday's mass meetings. Mr. Callahan is regarded as one of the most remarkable examples of spiritual regeneration in recent history, one extreme of his life beginning in the bar-room, and the other extreme seeing him in the pulpit.

Counting the conversions through the county, the results at the East End Chapel, and the records of the week at the city churches, over two hundred conversions and church additions have been reported to date in the campaign.

Tuesday will witness a telephone canvass of the city on the part of the local churches. Every telephone subscriber in the city will be rung up during the day and an invitation given to be present at the Tuesday evening services, which start at 7:30 in all churches.

MOVING PICTURES
IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

New York, Jan. 19.—Moving pictures with 3 cents as the price of admission are to be given in the East Side public schools. It was announced by Dr. William H. Maxwell, city superintendent of schools. The "blood and thunder" views will be omitted and pictures of an instructive and educational character will be interspersed with innocent and diverting photo plays.

OUTLOOK GOOD

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., January 19.—President Wilson is receiving opinions and estimates on the business situation in the country and is led to believe confidence in the future exists. He told callers today that he had no scientific information but that he had received a great many letters outling the situation in various colors and that the prospect was very optimistic.

CHICAGO HAS
BANK HEARING

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Secretaries McAdoo, of the Treasury and Houston, of the Agricultural Department, the committee empowered to organize the new regional reserve banking system began a hearing here today to determine where a bank in this district shall be located.

The hearing will be completed by tomorrow night. Bankers from Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska and Illinois are present and presenting claims.

FIVE CLERKS
ARE ARRESTED

By Associated Press.

Youngstown, Ohio, January 19.—Postoffice Inspector George Tate today arrested five employees of the Youngstown postoffice on a charge of riding the mails.

The clerks are Watson, Holbaugh, Willis, Thomas and Brown.

They were taken to Warren for arraignment before the United States Commissioner. The men are held for the alleged taking of unclaimed magazines.

OUTLAW READY
ON OWN TERMS

By Associated Press.

Maysville, N. Y., January 19.—The seige of Ed Beardsley, the Summerville farmer today resolved itself into a waiting game. The outlaw agreed to give up on Wednesday, but only on his own terms. He stipulated that his nine children who have been his safeguard since the seige be taken to the home of his brother and that he himself go to jail in Maysville, in the custody of his lawyer. Meanwhile Sheriff Anderson and posse are guarding, but their camp is well out of range of Beardsley's rifle.

Wheeling, W. Va., January 19.—Lewis Hendricks, of Wood county, and Grover Smith, of McDowell county, both serving life sentences for murder, escaped today from the Moundsville state prison.

CLARK OFFERED
$6000 BY FEDS

By Associated Press.

New York, N. Y., January 19.—Thomas Clark, catcher for the Cincinnati League Baseball team was asked to go to Buffalo to talk terms with the manager of the Federal league of that city. $6,000 for the season was the salary offered, Clark said. He added that he had refused to sign with Cincinnati thus far because the Reds had not met his demands for $6000 salary. Clark intimated that he might go to Buffalo to talk but that he was in no hurry to sign with anybody.

CONFESS THEFT

By Associated Press.

Dayton, O., January 19.—Two mere boys, Harry Hinebaugh, 20, and his brother, Harlan, 24, of Toledo, today confessed to having robbed a big jewelry store in Burlington, Ia., and are being held here for the authorities from Burlington.

The police here think the operations of the boys may be shown to reach into the thousands.

FARMER'S LANTERN
FIRES BIG GAS MAIN

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, January 19.—With a roar that could be heard for two miles a 15-inch gas main exploded today on the outskirts of the city. Flames 70 feet high burned fiercely this forenoon. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lantern on a farmer's wagon who was passing at the time. Carl Davis, the driver was hurled from his seat and badly injured. The gas supply for Norwood, O., and many other Ohio towns on this main will be cut off.

FIRST STORY
MAY PASS AGAIN

By Associated Press.

New York, N. Y., January 19.—Hans Schmidt's father and sister are ill and probably will be unable to leave their home in Germany to testify in his second trial for the murder of Anna Amuller. Schmidt's counsel made this announcement at the opening of the second trial today and the prosecution agreed that their testimony given at the first trial might be read if they could not appear. The jury in the first trial disagreed.

KICKED BY COLT
BADLY INJURED

Sunday afternoon while exercising a colt at his home on the Hukill farm a few miles southeast of this city, Charles Holland was very badly injured when the colt kicked him in the side.

He was internally injured and lost considerable blood by hemorrhages. Monday morning he was able to be about some, but was still losing blood from his lungs.

It is thought he will soon recover from the injuries received.

ONLY ONE LICENSE
SINCE JANUARY 3

Since the third of January only one marriage license has been issued in the local probate court and the one was issued on January 10th.

January is usually a dull month for those who embark on the sea of matrimony, but the present month to date has been unusually quiet in the number of licenses issued.

A short time before Christmas nearly two weeks elapsed without an application being made for a license.

GOVERNOR FERRIS

Governor Ferris of Michigan wired President Wilson, characterizing as "false" and a "traitorous insult" to Michigan an alleged statement by Congressman J. V. MacDonald, Progressive, Twelfth Michigan district (copper strike district), to the effect that constitutional government no longer exists in that region. The governor said: "Michigan has protected life and property and will continue to do so. Michigan needs no outside help."

2 LAID OFF
5000 STRIKE

By Associated Press.

Albany, N. Y., January 19.—A dispute over the discharge of two employees by the Delaware and Hudson railway caused a strike today that tied up the entire operating system. It is estimated that 5000 men are out. Only shop workers and office employees are on duty. Reinstatement of employees with full back pay is the only union demand. Meanwhile G. W. Hanger, of the Federal board mediation and conciliation from New York and Commissioner James Lynch of the State Labor department of Syracuse are on their way to Albany to offer their services for a settlement. It is planned to meet the representatives of five striking unions at 3 p. m. today. No violence is reported, but the mails are paralyzed.

Clifford S. Sims, vice-president and general manager of the railway, and Mr. Hanger arrived here this afternoon. Sims went at once to his office after expressing himself favorable to mediation.

Mr. Hanger said he would remain here until settlement is brought about, or he was satisfied arbitration is hopeless.

SAKURA-JIMA
STILL VIOLENT

By Associated Press.

Kagoshima, Japan, January 19.—Fresh eruptions of the volcano Sakura-Jima, which recently caused such widespread devastation, occurred today.

The eruptions today were accompanied by earthquakes and violent subterranean noises.

INDICTED MAN
UNDER ARREST

Elton Faulke, one of the men against whom the recent grand jury returned a secret indictment, was arrested in Columbus Saturday by Deputy Sheriff A. C. Nelson, and brought back to this city and lodged in jail to face the charge of failure to provide.

The man was unable to give bond and was left in the county jail until he can arrange for bond, or be tried.

Deputy Sheriff Nelson made the arrest after placing Delbert Payne in the penitentiary.

FINANCIAL BACKERS
TO LOOK AT ROAD

The financial backers of the Hillsboro-to-Chillicothe traction road will soon arrive within a short time to go over the proposed line.

Future plans will be announced by the three men when they go over the proposed road.

Those connected with the movement state that there is no doubt about the road being constructed the coming summer. It passes through Bainbridge, and forms a connecting link between Chillicothe and Cincinnati via Hillsboro.

MORE THAN 5000 ATTEND CHURCH SERVICES SUNDAY

Both Mass Meetings Attract Large Audiences, 1300 Women Filling Grace Church for Afternoon Sermon—Total Attendance Sets New Record in Campaign—More Than 200 Conversions Reported in City and County to Date—Today is Rest Day.

(By Hugh C. Weir.)

"What kind of a man is your future husband, young woman?"

Before an audience of thirteen hundred women, the largest, and in many ways the most remarkable audience of women ever assembled in the history of this city, Rev. H. C. Boblitt, of Columbus, put this question yesterday afternoon. It was the mass meeting of women of the Simultaneous Evangelistic Campaign.

"Is the young man to whom you have given your heart fit to marry you?" continued Mr. Boblitt. "Is he clean, and by clean, I mean just what I say. Is he one of the great army of young men of this country who bear the taint of the Great Black Plague? Do you know that one man in every four is the victim of some kind of sexual disease? Do you know that ten thousands infants are born blind in this country every year because the husband is physically unclean? Do you know that our twenty thousand cases of infantile paralysis are caused by a sinful taint in the blood of the parent?"

"The time is coming when every American girl will demand not only a certificate of character but a certificate of health from the man that asks her to be his wife. Governor Cox is an enthusiastic advocate of a bill just now, which makes such a health certificate compulsory on the part of both husband and wife.

"Somebody is just awfully shocked by these statements. Somebody will say that I have no business to talk in this way. Are we going to seal our lips then and see the race plunging to destruction, and our asylums and public institutions crowded more and more with the blind and the idiotic and the leprous offspring of society? When my daughter marries, I shall require that her husband be just as pure as her father was when he married her mother.

"In this day of moral indifference and spiritual decay, of a smart society, which takes the young man who dresses flashily and boasts that he has 'gone the pace' as its hero, the fathers and mothers of our boys and girls need to wake up. The alarm clock of a national peril is sounding in their ears. We deny sex education of our young people as indecent, and accept as the courier of our daughter a young man whose blood is so full of disease that he is not fit to touch her hand. She knows nothing of her peril because we think that the relation of the sexes is a subject that is not fit for her to hear. And so we see her life wrecked and her children born into the world, physically or mentally unsound, or perhaps both.

THE EVILS OF THE DANCE.

"I am aware that this is a delicate subject, that there are those who will call me 'straight laced' and 'Puritanical' and 'narrow' and 'old fashioned' when I venture to criticize the dance. Dancing has long been a function of society, but what a change it has undergone. Our grandfathers danced the stately, dignified minuet. Our fathers danced the square dances, where the darling gowns of a modern ball room would be regarded with horror. There was a spirit of deference to woman-kind, or a splendid courtesy present in those dances, the spirit of the gallant cavalier. What of our dances of today?

"We see the women's gowns cut more and more daringly. We see gallantry give way to a careless familiarity. We see flushed faces made more flushed by the wine glass. And recently we see a whole list of new fad dances spring up, almost as numerous and varied as an advertisement of breakfast foods. Do you know the history of these dances, you, who smile at my denunciation? Do you know that they originated in the underworld? Do you know that they had their birth in the red light district among the painted courtesans? Do you know that their one object was not the response of the body to music, not the rhythm of art, but the development of passion? But, you say, they are not the same in Washington Court House. Do you then infer that every man and woman in this community is absolutely pure? If you do, then this city is a marvel.

"Eighty-five per cent of the girls that go wrong are led astray through the medium of the dance. But you say, these figures may apply to the promiscuous, public dance. The select parlor dance is not to be classed under this head. Listen. I could tell you true stories that would make you recoil in horror of women who have gone to destruction from the 'select dance' that you defend. It is not because the men are vicious, or the women depraved, but just because they are men and women, and human, that these facts are true."

Mr. Boblitt's address was the result of extended investigations of modern social conditions made by him with the aid of some of the leading social workers of the country. He announced that he would have some startling things to say, but there were few who expected the frank revelation which he had to offer. There was nothing sensational in his address. The atmosphere of a frank, earnest sincerity was noticeable. At the conclusion of the meeting, scores of his audience thanked him for his statements.

CHURCHES ARE PACKED.

At the mass meeting for men at the Presbyterian church, a large audience was also present. It was addressed by Dr. Charles Shaw, who has charge of the services at this church. Dr. Shaw delivered one of his clear-cut, forceful expositions, remarkable because of its logic and depth of thought.

The musical feature was emphasized at both meetings. The male quartet that has made the Brewery song of the Billy Sunday campaign so popular here rendered the number at both the men's and women's meetings by special request.

It is estimated that an even larger attendance was chronicled at yesterday's services than on the previous Sunday. Probably two thousand persons were present at the afternoon meetings alone. At the evening service at Grace M. E. church, there was an attendance of over 1300. Computing the day's attendance at the different churches, a total of considerably more than 5000 was announced. At the Christian church in the evening, the crowd was so large that after every available inch of space had been used, a large number was turned away, unable to find even standing room.

Today is observed as a rest day in the campaign, with the exception of the noon day service at the Palace theater. The campaign meetings will begin again tomorrow, and it is believed that the week will establish a number of new church records in this city.

At the Presbyterian church last night, Dr. Shaw addressed an enthusiastic audience, with one of his most forceful sermons of the week. At the Grace M. E. church, Rev. F. E. Ross gave a stirring message, with a strong evangelistic appeal. A feature of the meeting was the presence of several members of the press, to whom Mr. Ross addressed the first part of his sermon. At the Baptist church, Rev. Henry Brandt spoke on "The Call of Salvation," taking up the inward call of the Holy Spirit, and the outer call of God's word. His sermon made a profound impression. At the Christian church, Mr. Hostetler spoke on "The White Horse and Its Rider," taking as his theme the vision of John on Patmos, and drawing a powerful picture.

CATTLE IMPORTS ARE LARGELY INCREASED

Lifting of Tariff Cause of the Big Advance.

Washington.—The effect of the Underwood-Simmons tariff law on the importation of cattle is indicated by shipments from Canada and Mexico to the United States within the last two months.

"Imported cattle inspected by the bureau of animal industry during the months of October and November," it was said at the office of information of the department of agriculture, "numbered 209,327 head as compared with 72,420 for the corresponding period of 1912. All of these cattle came from Canada and Mexico except 447 head of pure bred cattle for breeding purposes imported from Great Britain.

"The bulk of the slaughter cattle came from Canada, while Mexico furnished over four-fifths of the stockers and feeders.

"Imported meats and meat food products inspected during October and November amounted to 17,793,311 pounds. The bulk of this consisted of fresh and refrigerated beef. Of the total Canada furnished 8,098,197 pounds, Argentina 6,209,700, Australia 2,725,142, Uruguay 559,843 and other countries much smaller quantities."

Cattle are on the free list. The report continues:

During the fiscal year of 1913 over 166,000,000 pounds of beef and its products were exported, but this quantity included only somewhat more than 7,000,000 of fresh beef. The quantity of exports of beef and its products has rapidly declined from 33,000,000 in 1906. The exports of pork and its products in 1913 amounted to 964,000,000 pounds, a quantity that is exceeded by the average for the preceding twenty-three years.

BUTCHER ENLISTS MOVIES.

Uses Pictures in Lecture to Reduce Cost of Living.

Cincinnati.—C. H. Bolte, a local meat dealer, has solved the problem of reducing the cost of living. The "movies" are the medium through which he works. The pictures, however, are supplemented with talks by Mr. Bolte. The butcher stands in the foreground while photographs of hams, quarters of beef, shoulders of mutton, lamb kidneys and similar delicacies flash upon the audience.

In his talk Mr. Bolte has this to say: "The only specimens of meat recognized by some newly made brides are the clubhouse steaks at 30 and 40 cents a pound, tenderloins and several other dainties and high priced cuts."

"The reason the price of choice cuts is so high is because the quantity is limited and the demand great. "Brisket and shoulder plug are just about as nourishing when cooked properly, and they cost much less."

Bolte's lectures not only include what kind of meat the housewives should buy, but a practical demonstration as to how it should be prepared for cooking and a detailed account of how it should be cooked.

TOO HONEST FOR CONGRESS.

Ohio Representative Declares He Won't Run Again.

Canton, O.—In announcing that he would not be a candidate for re-election Representative J. J. Whitacre, Democrat, of the Eighteenth Ohio district, declared that "no man who wants to be intellectually honest has any business in congress."

"All I've done since I've been down in Washington," Mr. Whitacre went on, "has been to sit around and try to look wise, and that's what any man has to do who isn't willing to barter his convictions for political expediency."

"I can't stand that sort of business. I thought there might be a chance for an honest, wide awake, frank and open business man in congress, but I was quickly disillusioned."

NURSES DOING A GREAT WORK

A factor of public health work in Ohio which is becoming of increasing importance each year is the extension of the field for the visiting nurse, according to a writer in the January number of The Journal of the Ohio State Medical Association.

So many towns and small cities in Ohio have seen the value of this work that the demand for trained visiting nurses now exceeds the supply, and a number of young women are being specially trained for the Ohio field under the direction of the Visiting Nurses' Associations of Columbus and Cleveland.

The extension of the activities of the visiting nurse into rural communities in Ohio is the direct result of the campaign that has been waged for two years by the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, the writer says.

Seeing the need of this work, the Ohio society in 1911 engaged its first traveling nurse. She spent a month in various Ohio cities, familiarizing herself with local conditions, visiting the sick and instructing them in better methods of nursing, searching out disease breeding conditions, inspecting school conditions, etc. When she completed her month she called a public meeting, laid before the citizens her report of local conditions, and suggested various changes which would improve health conditions in that locality.

Definite results were at once evident. In many of the cities visited, the citizens were so amazed at the disease producing conditions which the nurse exposed, that they immediately tried to secure a permanent nurse of their own. When the division of tuberculosis under the state board of health was created, a special department was instituted to supervise the activities of this increasing number of visiting nurses.

Of course, experience is valuable, but nearly every man you meet it willing to swap for money.

THINKS MISSING LINK FOUND.

Stewart Edward White Discovers "Gorilla Men" in Africa.

London.—Stewart Edward White, the writer, believes he has discovered the "missing link." He sailed for New York, after having spent a year in German East Africa, exploring regions hitherto unknown to civilized man. White announced that he had discovered a race of men who strongly resemble the gorilla, and these, he believes, will supply the missing link in the Darwinian theory. He said he had photographs and other evidence to corroborate his belief.

"The gorilla men, as I have named them," said White, "subsist entirely upon fruit and the flesh of numerous small animals, which they kill with clubs, stones and pointed arrows. They are a little taller but less robust than the gorilla and are able to converse intelligently with several of the adjacent native tribes. The facial peculiarities are a prognathous chin and a broad, flat nose, while in the forehead are two great hollows near the temples."

Poetry For Today

VISITING HEARTS.

We go to visit here and there,
And see strange places quaint and rare—
But wait until the habit starts
Of visiting each other's hearts!

The interest gained and knowledge won
By such a journey will have done
Our natures such a world of good—
As every lofty purpose should.

For them, perhaps, we'll come to see
How much our tender sympathy
And help and cheer and loving aim
May save another's heart from shame.

And, more than all, we'll come to know
That ours is not the only woe,
And that there are so many lives
Where hope with desperate fortune strives.

So that, returning we may feel Contented more with our own weal,
And that there are so many lives
To help some other heart keep sweet.

OPENS NEW FIELD

New York, Jan. 19.—Governor Glynn began a conference here today with the aim of effecting the reforms for the reduction of the price of farm products and for the promotion of commerce. Governor Glynn feels that the cost of farm products, such as butter, eggs milk and the like, should be reduced, so that the consumers in the large cities will not be compelled to pay the prices that they do at present. At the same time he wants to see that the farmers get more for their products than they do now and have received in the past. Governor Glynn is confident that the establishment of a state market commission will help greatly.

ANTI-SUICIDE

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 19.—Any person who is seriously contemplating suicide or who fears that some day he may be so down in the dumps that he would welcome death by his own hand, is cordially invited to join the newly organized anti-suicide association. The aim of the association is to make existence so altogether delightful for members that they will banish all thoughts of suicide from their minds and will want to live to a ripe old age. The president of the association is Justice of the Peace Abraham Cohen.

KONDON'S CATARRHAL JELLY

PLAN TO QUIT BEFORE JULY 1

Leaders Would Have Congress Speed Up a Bit.

TO MAKE READY FOR CAMPAIGN

Party Heads Want Each Man in His Own District to Fight for Retention of Democratic Majority in Both Branches of Congress—Important Measures That Will Receive Early Attention.

Washington, Jan. 19.—With the congressional campaign coming next fall and the Republicans and Progressives already active, the majority leaders are insistent that all legislative business be disposed of before July 1, at the latest, in order that every man can be in his district to fight for retention of a Democratic majority in both houses of the next congress. The fact that senatorial contests under the direct elections amendment to the constitution are pending in many states makes the situation more urgent from a campaign standpoint.

President Wilson, as the leader of the dominant party, is as eager as the chieftains in congress to limit the session as much as possible, and all are pulling together to expedite legislative matters. Conferences on legislative program will be held in the near future.

It is practically certain that appropriation bills and many other important matters will be out of the way before the trust program is ready. Among the most important measures pending are the Alaskan railroad bill, which will pass the senate next Thursday; rural credit legislation, to be undertaken by the banking and currency committee soon; regulation of the stock exchanges as proposed in the Owen bill, upon which public hearings are to begin Feb. 4, and the Panama canal tolls question, which will come up in a joint resolution introduced by Representative Adamson, chairman of the interstate and foreign commerce committee, which would suspend conditionally for two years the provision of the Panama canal act granting free passage to American coastwise vessels.

All proposed legislation, it is now practically agreed, can not be crowded through at this time, but what bills are to be sidetracked has not been determined, and this will be the subject of legislative conferences from time to time between party leaders and the president as the session progresses.

MORAN'S FINISH IS ANTICIPATED

New York, Jan. 19.—Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh heavyweight, who will try to win the world's title from Jack Johnson in Paris next June, hasn't accomplished enough on this side of the Atlantic to make him appear a formidable opponent for the big black. Such is the opinion of local sporting men. If Johnson, however, should enter the ring a physical wreck, which he is said to be at the present time, Moran might beat him, but Johnson only half fit ought to beat the Pittsburgh man with considerable ease, in the opinion of the New York sporting men.

SCHMIDT ON TRIAL

New York, Jan. 19.—With his mother as his only new important witness, Hans Schmidt was placed on trial in the supreme court for the second time, charged with the murder of Anna Ammiller, whom he married, he asserted after his arrest last September, through a ceremony self-performed as a German priest. Schmidt's mother was ill during the first trial, in which the jury disagreed.

DIES AT SEA

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 19.—A cablegram from Gibraltar by Judge Charles Landis announces the death at sea of his brother, James I. Landis, editor and one of the publishers of the Lancaster New Era, from typhoid fever. He and his wife and niece sailed from New York on Jan. 8 on a trip around the world for his health.

STORM-SWEEPS OREGON COAST

San Francisco, Jan. 19.—Two coastwise boats were reported in distress off the Oregon coast. They are the steamer Fair Oaks and steamer Yellowstone, both bound from Gray's Harbor for San Francisco. The Yellowstone, with her main and mizzenmasts gone, was 20 miles off Cape Arago, with the Pacific Coast steamship Governor standing by. The Fair Oaks was off Coos bay bar, with her deck gone and bridge smashed.

The most violent windstorm in 34 years swept over western Oregon. At North Head the velocity of the hurricane was 92 miles an hour. Many poles were blown down. At Salem both flagstaves were blown off the Capitol. Nearly every town in Willamette valley suffered damage and several cities were without electric lights for a time.

STRIKE ORDERED

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The 5,000 operating department employees of the Delaware & Hudson railroad were ordered to strike by grand lodge officers representing the engineers, firemen, telegraphers, conductors and trainmen of the railroad. The men say that the strike will be called off if two men are reinstated, and that other grievances about back pay will be arbitrated.

STILL MISSING

London, Jan. 19.—The submarine A7, which failed rise after a dive in White Sand bay, near Plymouth, on Thursday morning, thereby causing the loss of 11 lives, is still unlocated. The ships which are searching for her continued to sweep the seas in the vicinity, but without getting any trace of the boat.

BAN ON DRINK

New York, Jan. 19.—"Young men who want to get on in the world don't drink nowadays," said John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to the Bible class of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church. "Great corporations will not employ men who drink." Mr. Rockefeller told the members of the class that his grandfather and his father never touched intoxicating liquor and were total abstainers as matter of principle, and that he himself had followed their example.

Five School Hours More Tiresome Than Eight Hours of a Working Day

By Professor GEORGE W. KIRCHWEY of Columbia University

I THINK most men will agree with me that five hours a day in school for a boy or a girl is equal to eight or nine hours of work for an adult. And I would like to know how easy it would be to find grown men and women willing to work eight or nine hours a day if they were FORBIDDEN TO STAND UP when tired of sitting down, if they were FORBIDDEN TO SPEAK TO EACH OTHER, if they WERE NOT EVEN PERMITTED TO MOVE AROUND A LITTLE to rest themselves by change of position.

Furthermore, particularly in large cities, one principal cause of breakdown on the part of high school and elementary students is insufficient nutrition and bad hygienic conditions in the school. I regard it as essential that public schools furnish a substantial luncheon to pupils at bare cost.

AT THE RISK OF INCURRING CRITICISM I AM WILLING TO SAY THAT THE TEACHING FORCE IN MOST OF OUR ELEMENTARY AND HIGH SCHOOLS TODAY IS MADE UP OF TEACHERS WHOLLY UNFITTED FOR THEIR IMPORTANT WORK. WHAT OUR BOYS AND GIRLS NEED IS TEACHERS OF PERSONALITY, FULL OF SYMPATHY FOR THOSE IN THEIR CARE AND POSSESSING THE FACULTY OF INTERESTING PUPILS IN THEIR WORK.

All over the country we have the buildings, the laboratories, the equipment, the books, but we LACK TEACHERS OF THE RIGHT KIND. As far as possible the work done in elementary and high schools should deal with the actual problems of the pupils' daily life and be largely constructive in character, with increased attention to manual and vocational training.

The IRONTON BUNSEN BURNER GAS HEATER

Saves from 45% to 75% of your gas bills and gives 33 1/3% more heat in a given length of time—demonstrated by actual test under all conditions—in competition with the leading stoves now on the market. *It combines the two most essential features of a heating stove—maximum heat—minimum gas consumption.

More Heat

We will prove these facts. Try this stove for ten days at our risk. It is the best gas heater.

Heats an ordinary room quicker than any other stove on the market—average time 15 minutes. It will raise the temperature 35 degrees with 5 feet of gas. It is the safest pipeless stove; burns without odor, with or without flue connection. With flue connection it is a perfect ventilator. Takes the cold air from the floor and circulates the heated air back across the floor. Our patented Bunsen Air Mixer and Ventilated Burner Plate with Asbestos back, insures clean burning.

MAY START WORK ON NEW DEPOT WITHIN 30 DAYS

Solicitor Morrison of the C. H. & D. Railroad Informs the State Utilities Commission That Exchange of Land in This City Has Been Made and Work on New Freight Depot is to Start Within Short Time.

The recent deal between the C. H. & D. railroad and C. A. & C. of Pennsylvania, for the exchange of land so that the C. H. & D. might acquire sufficient grounds for its new freight depot and sidings, will result in the beginning of the work within the next thirty days, according to the general solicitor of the C. H. & D., Morrison R. Waite.

A few years ago the Midland Grocery Company instituted proceedings with the Public Utilities Commission to force the C. H. & D. to construct a better depot here, and in connection with that action, Mr. Waite has written to the Commission as follows: Cincinnati, O., January 17.—(The Midland Grocery Company vs. the C. H. & D. Railway Co.) Hon. Joseph McGhee, attorney for Public Utilities Commission, Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Sir:—I have your letter of January 16th, received this morning. Yesterday I received from our Real Estate Agent a contract with the C. A. & C. Railway Company, for exchange of land necessary to make this improvement, with directions to have the title examined and deed prepared at once.

You see, therefore, that the matter is now moving and I hope that the work will be begun within thirty days, and will certainly do all that I can to reach that result. Yours truly,

MORRISON R. WAITE, General Solicitor for the C. H. & D. Railway Co.

YOUTH UNDERGOES SERIOUS OPERATION

Ora Talkington, son of W. S. Talkington, of Marion township, who is well known in this city, is now confined in the Springfield hospital slowly recovering from a very serious operation made necessary by rheumatism.

For sometime the youth has suffered with rheumatism, his sufferings were almost unbearable. The disease eventually drew his hips in such a position that one of the hip joints was dislocated, making him a cripple hardly able to get about.

Dr. Russel of Cincinnati, was summoned after the lad was placed in the Springfield hospital, and cutting into the hip he succeeded in replacing the dislocated bones. When the operation was performed, the other hip, which had been locked by the dislocated bones, was released, and the youth is now able to move the limb freely.

The operation was performed last week, but it will be some little time before the plaster casts are removed and he is able to be about once more. A complete recovery is anticipated.

NEW SERVICE DIRECTOR ON JOB

Chas. Gerstner succeeded C. E. Mark as service director of the city, Monday morning, taking up the new duties of his office at once.

He will make his headquarters at the mayor's office in the Cockerill building.

Ray Maddox, former clerk of the Service Department, will continue in the same capacity.

DEEP INTEREST IN SUNDAY SERVICES

The revival services in the Jeffersonville churches are now under way and Sunday night a union meeting was held at the U. P. church, with Rev. Fleming delivering the sermon. The attendance was large, and interest good. The choir of the town united in furnishing the music.

Prayer services began today. At Milledgeville the attendance Sunday afternoon was large. The G. A. R. attended in a body. One aged veteran went forward. Great spiritual power was manifested at the meeting. Rev. D. A. Cuth delivered the sermon.

The evening services were largely attended, and Rev. H. B. Conley occupied the pulpit. There will be services each evening this week, and also each morning at 10 a. m.

PARTITION SUIT IN COMMON PLEAS

Dean Hidy, Cassius Hidy and Mary Harper, Saturday afternoon filed suit in the common pleas court, making Margaret Arbogast and others defendants in an action for the partition of certain real estate. E. L. Bush is attorney for the plaintiffs.

The division of the land in question is asked under a clause of the will of Joseph Hidy, who died in 1876, leaving a farm of 130 acres to his wife, the farm to be sold at her death and the proceeds divided among the children, or their heirs.

Mrs. Hidy died December 16, 1913 and partition of the estate is now asked.

SELLS PROPERTY WILL INVEST HERE

R. A. Hilliard, who was recently being sought by his brother, J. W. Hilliard, of Middletown, and who was located at Centerville, shortly after the latter named gentleman had returned to his home in Middletown, has informed The Herald that he not only became reunited with his brother, but disposed of his property at Clarksburg, W. Va.

It will be remembered that J. W. Hilliard came here some weeks ago in search of his brother, to acquaint him with an offer of $8500 he had received for real estate in West Virginia. It seems the brothers had not met for some years and were not keeping close track of each other whereabouts. The "missing" man is a plumber and formerly worked for the Allen Construction Co. He made a trip to Clarksburg and sold his property for more than the offer first mentioned. He will now invest in property in this city.

VISITORS CARRY OFF HIGH SCORE

Forty-three to sixteen is the way the "Korn Hatters" wound up the basketball game with the Y. M. C. A. team Saturday night.

The game started off with the visitors taking the game by storm, and at the end of the first half the "Korn Hatters" had 31 points to their credit, while the Y. M. C. A. team had four points. The visitors had roughed the game.

In the second half the visitors were given some of their own kind of work with the result that they were held down to 12 points in the half.

The work of Miller, the "Korn Hatters" forward, was the feature of the game. He is recognized as the best forward in the state.

The local team played exceptionally good after the first half, and Kier, who has recently been advanced from substitute, delivered the goods in good style, together with the remainder of the team.

NEW IDEA IN SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

An entirely novel idea in Presbyterian Sunday school work has been introduced in the getting out of a 1914 calendar by the First Presbyterian Sunday school.

The calendar is a tastefully gotten up little booklet, and schedules the entire program of the different classes and departments of the Sunday school, the various teachers' committees, features and special services.

The general officers for the year are superintendent, M. E. Hitchcock; asst. supt., L. L. Bowman; secretary-treasurer, W. O. Deheart; asst. secy-treas., Harry Hall; librarians, Albert Melers, Alywyn Williams; chorister, L. L. Bowman; organist, Lillian Davis.

The calendar will be of the utmost help in the successful carrying on of the Sunday school work.

SPLENDID MEETINGS AT BLOOMINGBURG

One of the largest crowds ever attending revival services in Bloomingburg filled the Presbyterian church there Sunday night, and a deep interest was manifested by all. Two persons, united with the church, making a total of six who have gone forward at Bloomingburg.

The services are being conducted by Rev. C. N. Thomas and Rev. F. M. Moore and this week the services will be held in the Presbyterian church. They were held in the Methodist church last week. Both ministers have been delivering forceful sermons, and there is a great spirit of conviction manifested which promises to result in many conversions.

This week is expected to be a big week in the Bloomingburg churches, the Methodist and Presbyterian churches having combined in union services.

DEATHS

McCALLISTER.

Effie McCallister, aged 70 years, wife of Daniel McCallister, died Monday morning at 11:25 at residence on East Rawlings street. Funeral services will be announced later.

MONTHLY MEETING.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. L. L. Bowman, 220 W. Market, Wednesday p. m., at 2:30.

All ladies of the church are cordially invited.

OUR 1914 OHIO ALMANAC

is just off the press. It carries 100,000

facts about Ohio—facts about business, agriculture, education, politics, your City, County and State; facts about everything you want to know about Ohio.

It is a Handbook that will interest and instruct every man and woman in the Buckeye State.

It has been compiled for us by experts. It is concise, comprehensive, thoroughly reliable. We are proud of this Handbook of ours. Its 300 pages are jammed full of authentic information—authentic because it was compiled by those who know. The work was under the direct supervision of O. K. Shimansky, editor and writer.

Among those who assisted in the compilation were Prof. C. B. Galbreath, secretary Fourth Constitutional Convention and former State Librarian; E. Frank Brown, fiscal supervisor, State Board of Administration; Miss Lucy J. Price, editor and lecturer; Judge R. M. Dittley, tax expert and former chairman Tax Commission of Ohio; Karl K. Shimansky, newspaper writer.

And what a lot of good stuff this staff did get into the 300 pages of our 1914 Ohio Almanac. The 100,000 facts in the Handbook include these important subjects:

Agricultural statistics
Altitudes
Amendments to Constitution
Canals
Census statistics
Churches
City populations
Climate
Colleges
Compensation law
Constitutional amendments
County statistics and officials
Crops
Directory of all towns
Divorce statistics
Election statistics

Farm statistics
Floods of 1913
Game laws
Governors
Industrial statistics
Interurban railroads
Laws, liquor, tax, game, etc.
Legal holidays
Manufacturing statistics
Marriage statistics
Mayors
Military history
Mounds and builders
Party platforms and candidates
Population, state, county, city
Postal rules

Postoffice guide
Public debt
Railroad guide
Rainfall
Referendum votes
Rural population
Saloon law and statistics

CANNON'S SWAN SONG OFTEN SUNG

In the closing days of the Sixty-second congress newspapers were every day printing stories about defeated members singing their swan songs on the floor of the house. Joseph G. Cannon, enjoying the distinction of longer service in the house than any other man in the history of the United States, made several speeches in rapid succession, and each one was described in the public prints as his swan song.

The night that he attended the farewell reception to Representative McKinley of Illinois, also a "dead duck," Uncle Joe was down on the program for a speech.

One of Famous Four.

Although more than 13,000 men have served in the lower branch of congress since the house of representatives assembled for the first time in 1789, only four of them served thirty years or more and Cannon, who served thirty-eight, was at seventy-seven the youngest old man in public life. Elected to the Forty-third congress, he was elected to every congress thereafter until his defeat in 1912 by Frank T. O'Hair, with the exception of the Fifty-second congress. Four times he was speaker of the house of representatives.

Since his return to private life at Danville, Ill., it has been reported at various times that he would run again this year. He was noncommittal when asked about it.

Official Washington's Farewell.

The former speaker's leavetaking of Washington was made memorable. On Feb. 15 last he was tendered a farewell dinner which was attended by President Taft, members of the Taft cabinet and many prominent men regardless of political affiliations.

When the guests assembled they found at each place a souvenir program with a poetical tribute unsigned, but written by Representative Moore. It read:

The storms may come, the winds may blow,
The saplings and the pines may fall,
But, tempered to the sun and snow,
The sturdy oak survives them all.
And so in legislative hall,
Where men and measures come and go,
On Fame's enduring record calls,
The honor rests with Uncle Joe.

Inseparably associated with Uncle Joe, perhaps the quaintest figure in national politics, was the ever present Cannon cigar, and on the reverse side of the program beneath the curling smoke of a pictured cigar ran this couplet:

You may break, you may shatter, the rules if you will,
But the Cannon aroma will hang to them still.

His Memorable Battle of 1910.

It was in the middle of March, 1910, that Speaker Cannon's star began to set. At the end of three days and three nights of bitter parliamentary battle he and his faithful band were overruled on a critical point of order, and Uncle Joe was deprived of the chairmanship of the all powerful rules committee of the house.

Counseling complete surrender, the senate leaders called upon Uncle Joe to resign as speaker. In indignation he waved them from his room. He had not yet begun to fight. And when the "elder statesmen" had retired to their end of the capitol Uncle Joe climbed back into his chair and hurled defiance at the victors.

"I will not entertain a motion," he declared, while the house listened with breathless suspense, "to declare vacant the speakership of the house."

It was a game of battle, and the speaker seemed to have calculated well that the insurgents had gone as far as they dared. The motion was made and lost, and the speaker sat secure again upon his throne, but with his scepter, nicked.

For three days and three nights he had been at high tension in the center of the crisis, the man upon whom and against whom all was being waged. Then came the moment of defeat and the challenge that stemmed defeat and brought out victory again, with Uncle Joe triumphant.

From that time on his political prestige suffered impairment, but even so, his defeat for re-election in 1912 was a national surprise.

A Substitute Much Cheaper Than Hay.

Brigadier General John J. Pershing at Mindanao, P. I., has forty acres of "guinea grass" under cultivation which costs exactly 62 cents per hundred-weight as against 25 for hay from San Francisco. Cultivation of this grass will be started in other parts of the Philippines to supply army forage needs.

1,500 Acres In Potatoes.

Caldwell, Ida.—As a result of the phenomenal success of J. B. Frye, a Deer Platt settler under the Fayette-Boise project, in raising potatoes, there will probably be some 15,000 acres set out to tubers in this vicinity next season. Mr. Frye this year made $4,500 off a fifteen acre patch, gathering 9,000 bushels, and got an average price of 50 cents per bushel.

Every man is a coward—if you can only discover the particular thing that frightens him.

CHIHUAHUA RUN ON SOCIALISTIC BASIS

Rebels Operate Every Industry and Apply Proceeds to State.

El Paso, Tex.—Socialism is getting a practical tryout in Chihuahua, the refugees say. The rebel state government is operating the banks, the stores, the foundry, the brewery, the mint, the street car lines, all gambling concessions, the railroad to Juarez and every other industry. Villa is preparing to reopen the old Palomir bank as a state bank with the confiscated Terrazas estates as securities and will issue paper money from the bank. All of the proceeds from street railway lines are going into the state treasury.

Villa has ordered the Constitutional government to execute deeds giving the homes of the principal Huerta sympathizers in the city of Chihuahua to the rebel military commanders.

Villa has announced that he will give the homes of Enrique Creel, Juan Creel, Juan Terrazas, Luis Terrazas, Jr., and Martin Palomir to his generals in the field and retain the home of Manuel Prieto for his own use.

These homes were among those ordered confiscated by Villa, as well as that of Jacob Tuche, who is a subject of Turkey. Villa also distributed clothing, shoes and candy from the seized Spanish stores among the poor of Chihuahua as a Christmas present from the rebel leader.

A wireless tower is now ready in Chihuahua for operation on the roof of the cathedral, and a field wireless outfit is to be supplied to the rebel army so that communication may be established with headquarters in Chihuahua.

Rebel officials in Chihuahua claim to have evidence that the federal generals carried off much wealth when they evacuated and left for Ojinaga. They declare that the federal commanders reported to the City of Mexico after all battles that none of their men had been killed and continued to draw pay for them all. They charge that General Mercado bought $200,000 worth of diamonds in Chihuahua city before leaving, as he could get them at very low prices because of the owners' fear of losing them to rebel looters.

A Kansas judge has decided that a man is the owner of his wife's clothes. If her new bonnet costs too much to suit him he can wear it himself.

It takes one-twentieth of a second for a wireless signal to pass from Washington, D. C. to San Francisco, Cal.

ARCHBISHOP SCORES TANGO.

Mgr. Chollet Calls It Powerful Dissolvent of French Morality.

Paris.—Mgr. Chollet, archbishop of Cambrai, has published a denunciation of the tango as a corrupter of morals and asks Christian families to bar it from their homes. In his letter the archbishop says:

"The tango performed according to its special rules is a dance profoundly dangerous to morals. It tends by an inconceivable infatuation to spread more and more."

After calling faithful members of the church to exclude this dance from their homes, Mgr. Chollet asks the clergy to combat in an energetic manner "one of the most powerful dissolvents of French morality."

WISCONSIN LAW

AN AID TO WIVES

Chance to Bring Lazy and Bad Husbands to Time.

Madison, Wis.—Women of Wisconsin have a new "whip" for bad husbands. The Huber work law, by which men charged with offenses which come within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace are put to work and their money turned to those dependent upon them, nicely serves the purpose of wives.

Half the jails of the state are nearly empty. They are almost wholly empty during the summer months when outdoor work can be done in a dozen occupations and when farmers are clamoring for hands.

The way the housewife can bring her recreant husband to terms if he is inclined to spend too much of his wages on liquor or other things is to watch her chance to have him arrested for "disorderly conduct" or some minor charge. The judge sentences him to ninety days' labor. He returns to his old job, but the sheriff collects the wages and turns them all over to the wife.

There's no getting away from the law either. If the sheriff be lax he is liable to a fine of $100, and if the prisoner, working outside of the jail, escapes across the county line he is liable to a fine of $500 or a year in jail or state prison.

Sentence under the Huber law also means total abstinence from liquor. Any person giving it to a prisoner is liable to a term of thirty days in jail. Refusal to work means ten days in solitary confinement on a bread and water diet. Good work means shortening of the term by a fourth of the time.

If the prisoner has no one dependent upon him his earnings, minus the court costs, are turned into the county treasury.

Wife desertion and abandonment promise to decrease in Wisconsin on account of the law.

502,016 READ AT COLUMBIA.

Library Figures Show Over a Million Books Called For.

New York.—More than half a million readers used the Columbia university library last year, and each reader averaged almost two books apiece for a total of practically 1,000,000 books. The exact figures were announced by the university authorities as follows: Readers in reading rooms, 502,016; volumes used in reading rooms, 792,592; volumes taken out for home use, 196,922. The number of readers shows an increase of 47 per cent over last year.

The analysis shows that 39 per cent of all the books used were in literature, while the social sciences were second, with 20 per cent. The other calls were history, 13 per cent; religion, 10.1 per cent; science, 6.6 per cent; philosophy, 5.2 per cent; technology, 2.1 per cent; general, 1.7 per cent; fine art, 0.7 per cent, and philology, 0.3 per cent.

Dr. William D. Johnston, the librarian, is leaving New York to become head of the public library of St. Paul. Dr. Johnston was appointed librarian at Columbia in 1909 to succeed the late Dr. James Hulme Canfield.

POOR, BUT HAS FORTUNE.

Owner of Big Diamond Can't Find Purchaser For His Stone.

London.—An English diamond digger named Bowker has arrived in London with a diamond of the first water weighing 178½ carats, but he finds himself in the same position as Mark Twain's man with the $1,000,000 bank note. He has more wealth than hundreds of men to whom he has appealed, but he is unable to raise a penny on the stone.

The diamond is an amber stone, perfectly clear and of undoubted value. It was found at Drogoveld, South Africa, and resembles the Kohinoor. There is no question that Bowker is the legitimate owner, but he cannot find a buyer. He has shown the stone to all the big London dealers; but, while they have all displayed keen interest, all have declined to purchase it on one pretext or another.

The biggest diamond ever found, the Cullinan, discovered in 1905, weighed 3,025½ carats, or 113½ pounds, until it was cut up.

OHIO SOLONS ARE AT WORK

Every One Present at Opening of Special Session.

BILLS APPEAR IN EACH HOUSE

Governor Cox Sends in a Message
Further Designating Laws He Wishes to Have Enacted, Flood Protection Being Included—Legislators Declare Themselves in Favor of Short Session.

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—With nearly every assemblyman in his seat, the Ohio legislature convened at 10 o'clock today in special session.

Few changes appear in the organization. The most notable one was that of Lieutenant Governor William A. Greendlund's presiding over the senate instead of Hugh L. Nichols, who has been elevated to chief justice of the supreme court. Governor Cox today delivered a special message to the senate, advising that body of the change.

Contrary to expectation, Arthur J.
McKernan, of Cleveland, journal
clerk in the senate, was at his post.
McKernan last summer accepted a clerical position with the Ohio Equity association in Cleveland. For this action of McKernan the administration intimated that some other person might get his job for the special session. The Cleveland members recommended that McKernan be retained, however, as it appeared that he was not responsible for any of the alleged frauds connected with the association's action.

Batch of Bills Introduced.

These bills were introduced in the house today: Automobile license, by Wardner of Holmes; limiting reports of state departments, by Welch of Ottawa; providing for appointment of a United States senator in case of vacancy in the office by the governor,
by Snyder of Hamilton; correcting the Wooster university charter so it may accept certain bequests, by Et-ling of Wayne; banking measure, conforming with the federal banking bill, by Guthrie of Marion; permitting the state auditor to issue duplicate warrants, by Behne of Williams;
limiting the duties and powers of no-taries public to safeguard the I. and R., by Clark of Hamilton; appropriating $100,000 for the Panama-Pacific exposition, by Fellinger of Cuyahoga; making perjury in connection with verification of initiative and referendum petitions a felony, by Snyder of Pickaway; prohibiting solid shooting in mines, by Shanley of Portage; permitting cities to issue bonds outside the limitation of the Longworth act to buy public utilities, by Mills of Cuyahoga; providing for the purchase of emergency supplies for mines, by Chapman of Montgomery;
prescribing county and district supervisory for rural schools, by Lowry of Lary; certification of teachers, by Morris of Fairfield; state aid for weak school districts, by Ruhlman of Vinton; training for teachers, by Reid of Fayette; distribution of school funds, by Houghlin of Paulding;
1914 budget, by Cowan of Putnam.

Senator William Green of Coshocton had the privilege of introducing the coal screen bill, which asks that miners be paid on a run-of-mine basis. It is anticipated by administration leaders that this measure will ease the greatest fight of any proposed legislation.

Flood Protection.

Governor Cox sent a special message to both houses further designating laws which he wishes to have enacted. In this message was a request for legislation through which cities and districts may work out a system of flood protection. The bill already has been prepared and it will be introduced forthwith.

Senator William A. Weygant of Portage, who proposed safeguards for the initiative and referendum at the regular session last winter, was honored with the privilege of introducing the administration measure on this subject. Senator Mooney reintroduced his bill providing that money from all state departments shall be turned into the state treasury weekly.

The directing commissioner, D. P.
Torpy of Marietta urged that $250,000
be appropriated for the Ohio building at the San Francisco exposition, but Governor Cox, Speaker Swain and others decided $100,000 would be an ample expenditure.

All legislators declare in favor of a short session. Speaker Swain stated that he was certain the work will be completed within three weeks, or four weeks at the longest.

HAS SOME MATE

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 19.—Arrested on a charge of maintaining Mrs. J. W.
Deane, a pretty young woman, as his "soul mate," Rev. J. W. Foster, a prominent Baptist minister of Atlanta, admitted the charge and said that his liaison with the woman had made him a more spiritual preacher.

"My wife is to blame for all this,"
said Foster. "She was unsympathetic and was no help to my ministry. I met Mrs. Deane and found her to be my real soul mate. Since meeting her I have been a better man and a better preacher."

"My husband is seeking a divorce and Dr. Foster tells me he will get one," said Mrs. Deane. "It is our intention to marry and thereby avoid a scandal."

Rev. Foster came here two years ago from Waco, Tex. Foster maintained Mrs. Deane in a house within a stone's throw of his church and within two blocks of the residence
where he maintained the real Mrs.
Foster and her seven children.

TO BEAUTIFY PANAMA CANAL

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—With the digging nearly done, and the forfications well under way, the decoration of the Panama Canal is a subject of renewed attention, aroused particularly by the suggestion from France that the early work of Ferdinand De Lesseps, the French engineer, be commemorated by a statue to him at some conspicuous point on the canal. This is but one of many ideas, however, and the whole question of embellishment of the waterway is still open.

Artists generally agree with engineers that the canal is a monument to itself, but at the same time there has been no lack of suggestion for beautifying the water-way. One proposition is for colossal pillars at the outermost points of the Atlantic and Pacific entrances, surmounted by statues of heroic proportions of Columbus, Balboa, and others whose names have been indelibly connected with the discovery of America and the development of the canal. Another proposal has been for a statue to Senator John Morgan, of Alabama
one of the pioneers in this country for isthmian canal construction. De Lesseps, by the way, has not altogether been forgotten for the house which he once occupied at Cristobal is still preserved. In front of it stands a small monument to Christopher Columbus.

he wants the students to earn by investing and reinvesting.

STATEMENT BY BESIEGED MAN

Jamestown, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Edward Beardsley, who since last Tuesday has stood off a sheriff's posse anxious to arrest him for shooting Overseer of the Poor John G. Putnam, received a newspaper man at his home in the country. A cordon of sentinels has been posted about the farmhouse by Sheriff Anderson. Beardsley said he would gladly make a statement, and wrote the following:

"I wish to state the facts in the shooting of Poormaster Putnam.
These people came to my house,
Sheriff Anderson, Putnam, Sheriff
Colegrove, with the subpoena to appear before Justice of the Peace Harry M. Young. These papers were without the signature of the said justice. I was asked to show cause why my nine children should not be taken and put in a charity institution.
My children had board, clothes, and money in my pocket to buy more.
Whereupon I felt it my duty to protect my home and family and children, with my life.

"My brother expects to take my children and take care of them and me to jail Wednesday to await a trial for shooting in the defense of my own home and little ones. Did I do right or not? I need friends and assistance from those that believe in the protection of home and family. I need bail
if permitted to have bail. Goodbye."

Beardsley's reference to Wednesday was in regard to an agreement which he had made with three of his brothers and his lawyer. This agreement was only reached when he was fully convinced that his brother would be permitted to take charge of the children. Beardsley stipulated that the grandmother who is at Youngsville, Pa., be sent for to prepare the children for the journey to Titusville. This was agreed to.

BOY ROBBERS

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.—Edward Hoffman, 18, and John Rice, 15, who,
police say, have confessed to beating Mrs. Signat Stern at her husband's shoe store on the West Side in a robbery attempt, are under arrest. Police declare that the boys have committed many robberies within the past few weeks. The older boy has a wife and baby.

SOLE DAY?

COAST BLIZZARD

Boston, Jan. 19.—It is many years since such havoc has been wrought
among the vessels of the coastwise fleet as that which followed the blizzard along the New England coast last week. The gale wrecked one steamer, six schooners and a barge, according to the record of disasters disclosed up to this hour. Numerous other vessels sustained severe damage and were left little short of wrecks. One schooner, the Prescott Palmer, is missing. The property loss is estimated at nearly $1,000,000.
Only one life was sacrificed, while 161 people were brought safely to shore. Of these, 108 were on the steamer Cobuequid when she struck a rock in the Bay of Fundy, a short distance off the Maine coast.

ment of Governor Glynn. The governor explained that he wished to have

Relief From Constipation

It's Me For Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, sootheing vegetable laxative. No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark-brown mouth"
now and then—a bad breath—a dull tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Diamond Thieves at Large.

Columbus, O., Jan. 19.—Detectives who took up the bloody trail of the two window smashers who robbed H.
J. Heimberger's jewelry store of diamond rings worth $1,200 failed to catch the pair, but flushed from cover
another man who was badly wanted and captured him. Edward Huffman, 20, the man under arrest, was indicted
by the grand jury for alleged burglary. One of the young desperados who robbed the jewelry store cut his hand badly in the scuffle with Mr.
Heimberger. The pair while fleeing fired five shots at Heimberger.

UNCLE SAM FACES TASK

Ultimately He Will Have to Restore Order In Mexico.

CONCLUSION OF DIPLOMATS

President Wilson Waiting, Says One,
Until the Country is Fully Prepared to Accept Drastic Action On the Part of This Government as the Only Way Out—When, the Question
at the Capital.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The conviction is becoming more and more general that the United States will ultimately have to undertake the task of performing the necessary police work in Mexico and re-establishing the reign of law and order, just as was done in Cuba, and the question universally asked is not "Will there be intervention?" but "When?"

The growth of this conviction has been steady in Washington ever since the president gave up the reins of government and began his exile. It has now so spread as to permeate every part of Washington, including many high official quarters.

One diplomat who has discussed the Mexican situation with President Wilson has even reached the conclusion that President Wilson himself shares this conviction as to the ultimate solution of the Mexican problem. The president is waiting, this man has concluded as a result of his intercourse with the White House and the state department, until the country is fully prepared to accept such action as the only way out, and most important features of his legislative program are out of the way and until the United States has firmly established in the Latin-American mind the principle that it insists upon all else upon constitutional government in this hemisphere.

In another four weeks General Huerta will have occupied the provisional presidency of Mexico for the period of one year, during the greater part of which time he has continued in office in absolute defiance of the fiat of this government.

Whether or not it is accepted as a fundamental proposition that either Mexico or some other nation must clean house in the southern republic, the outlook from the American point of view is found to be decidedly pessimistic in the consensus of opinion.

REFUGEES HAVE REACHED MARFA

Marfa, Tex., Jan. 19.—Almost famished from their three days' march on foot of 67 miles, over a wind-swept mountain road, the 3,300 Mexican federal soldiers and generals routed from Ojinaga, Mexico, by the rebels, with 1,067 women and about 300 children, arrived here today. They are to be transported by train to Fort Bliss, at El Paso.

The ragged remnant of the Huerta army, which sought asylum in this country rather than face possible extermination by the rebels, will be normally interned at Fort Bliss tomorrow as wards of the government. They are to be held there indefinitely from the footing of prisoners of war.

General Mercado, riding on a horse, his uniform covered with dust, was humiliated not only at the defeat of his army and the necessity for his flight to foreign soil, but also because of a report from Mexico City that he would be court-martialed should he return to his native country. Besides General Mercado were the federal generals Castro, Aduna, Anda, Orpinal and Romero.

COLDS TO BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY
Intelligent people realize that common colds should be treated promptly. If there is sneezing and chills, coughing, begin promptly the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It is effective, pleasant to take, checks a cold, and stops the cough which causes loss of sleep and lowers the vital resistance. Blackmer & Tanquary.

IMPROVED ROADS AND BUILDING OF ELECTRIC ROADS

Editor, Herald:—

Washington Court House, being situated in a county rich in production of agricultural products; a county settled and well cultivated by an industrious and highly intelligent citizenship, offers, upon its improved roadways, practically without grades, an exceedingly bright opportunity for the operation of interurban railways at a satisfactory profit.

I have so said to my banking and interurban friends who are engaged in such enterprises.

I have assured them of cheerful co-operation by the property owners along the proposed routes, and have cited them to the applications now being filed with our county commissioners, Messrs. Brown, Perill and Weaver, praying for the widening, repairing and resurfacing of our present system of pikes.

I have assured them that this is the time of all times to get into this county with their roads. That is, to join with our people who are asking for these betterments to our highways.

I have told them of the opportunities for interchange of business between themselves and the Baltimore & Ohio, Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, Detroit, Toledo & Ironton, and Pennsylvania railroads and between the Adams, American and United States Express companies.

I feel that I should tell the property owners who are doing the commendable work of petitioning for the improvement of the roadways abutting their property of these negotiations. First—Because they are entitled to the information.

Second—Because their consent is an absolute necessity, legally.

The plan that seems feasible and attractive to my associates and to the property owners along the route, so far as an opportunity has permitted a conference on the subject, is this—

When widening and improving the said highways, include in the construction a street railway track, and widen the highway to 33 or more feet, so as to give a proper width roadway on each side of the track.

We, (the interurban people) to agree to lease, equip, operate and maintain an interurban business on said tracks.

Said lease to be on such terms as may be agreed upon, between the abutting property owners, the township trustees, the county commissioners, the State Highway Commission and the town councils.

The proceeds of said lease to be applied to the payment of interest and principal of bonds issued in behalf of the improvement.

At first it will appear as undesirable and dangerous for a street railway to be in the center of the pike. We answer that the cars of such system will be much less frequent than the automobiles and not more liable to create accidents.

The convenience and economy far outweigh any disadvantages.

Our proposition is this. We will lease the right to operate over the track, and we ask the petitioners to confer with the county commissioners and the Prosecuting Attorney to learn if the present laws will permit us to enter into such a contract.

If not, learn what amendment is necessary to permit us to do so and secure the co-operation of the Hon. Charles Reid to have such amendment passed at this special session of the Legislature, which convenes January 19.

We respectfully ask the abutting property owners, and others, to talk about this enterprise to their families and neighbors. This is an enterprise wherein co-operation is necessary.

A GOOD INVESTMENT

My boy Jim, he needs inspirin'—there's a lot of good in Jim, but as yet there hasn't very much of it come out of him. So he needs some mental stirrin' that will wake him up—in fact, something broadenin' to set him thinkin' how he oughter act, something strengthenin' his character, to make him feel he can, and he oughter get right busy now to prove himself a man; The best ain't none too good fer him, if he will only try—So fer him a season ticket I've made up my mind to buy To Chautauqua.

My Marthy is a sweet gal, but she's silly, more or less. Bein' like most other females at her time of life, I guess. She needs something that will broaden out that mind of hers a bit, and will teach her this here world ain't just a little chunk of grit; She needs a broader education and upliftin' influence (Without which the sweetest maiden hasn't got a lick of sense.) And now I've the chance to help her I won't let it slip, you bet, So for Marthy I will certainly another ticket get To Chautauqua.

Why, if I could send my children to a college great and grand Where they'd have the best instructors to be found in all the land For a little old two dollars, and I didn't do it, then I would be ashamed to ever look 'em in the face again; Yet the Chautauqua brings it to us, brings the college to our door, With the biggest brained instructors to be found from shore to shore. Will I miss it? I don't reckon. Will I let the chance go by Just 'cause money ain't too plenty? If I do I hope I'll die Fore Chautauqua.

Ma and me? Sh-h: That's a secret! I want that for a surprise! That will set the light a-dancin' like when courtin' in her eyes; Ma's just set her heart on goin', but I'm quiet as a rat, Actin' like it was too costly. Shucks! Two dollars—what is that To the pleasure and the good that it'll give us, one and all, Fun, instruction, entertainment? Why, the place is lots too small; If it cost us fifty dollars, long as I could raise the pile, We would be there every session—so you'll see us, I should smile, At Chautauqua.

—Lee Shippey.

RADIUM SPRINGS

Denver, Colo., Jan. 19.—There are radium springs in Colorado, according to an announcement made by Professor Russell D. George, state geologist and professor of geology in the University of Colorado. The Colorado radium field is more extensive than any in Europe, Professor George declares. He has made tests which prove absolutely that 11 springs in this state are radio-active. His department has made tests of the waters of 209 springs.

Because of the laws regulating his department he was unable to give details or data, the information being required in bulletin form, and the department has not funds for the bulletin service. Professor George is arranging for funds for the bulletin service, when his discoveries will be announced in detail.

COBB REFUSES

Detroit, Jan. 19.—Ty Cobb will not become a Federal leaguer. This assurance came from Royston, Ga., in a personal telegram. "I will play in Detroit," the telegram reads. "Federal league offered me terms, but my Detroit contract suits me. I would gain nothing by change."

GOOD SUGGESTION TO WASHINGTON C. H. PEOPLE

It is surprising the amount of old, foul matter the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka, drains from the system. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and acts on BOTH the upper and lower bowel so thoroughly that ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation almost IMMEDIATELY. We are mighty glad we are Washington C. H. agents for Adler-I-ka. F. Christopher, druggist. Adv.

LACK OF FRESH AIR

Causes Rundown Condition. How To Keep Strong.

Statistics prove that the death rate is very much greater in the winter months than in summer, and that the lack of fresh air is largely responsible for this condition.

If the system becomes rundown, blood thin and watery, circulation poor, no appetite, don't dose with drugs, but take our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol, not a patent medicine, as everything in it is named on every package and if it does not give you a hearty appetite, enrich the blood and create strength we will return your money; that shows our faith in Vinol.

A case has just come to our attention from Knoxville, Tenn. Miss Carrie King says: "For three years I was all run-down, weak, had no appetite and after all that time I am glad to say Vinol has brought back my health and strength."

YOUNG BOER WARRIOR STOPS HERE ON A LONG HIKE SOUTH

Hofmeyr Van Wyk, of Johannesburg, South Africa, passed through the city Monday morning, on a hike from Cleveland, Ohio to Jacksonville, Florida. He is making the entire distance on foot, and says he enjoys it very much.

While he stopped at the B. & O. station Monday morning, he gave a short and interesting account of his experience, and for a young man of 26 years of age, he has seen much of a hard life.

Van Wyk left South Africa on the 1st day of November, 1912, landed in New York December 8th, 1912, and has been going about the country since that time, gathering information for a book which he expects to publish within the next year or two.

At the age of 16 years Van Wyk entered the Boer war and remained in the service several years, driving ammunition wagons, doing red cross work and fighting the enemy when the opportunity presented itself.

He states that the Union of South Africa is in a very unsettled condition, and that the natives are not behaving well under their new rule, a thing demonstrated by the present strikes and clashes between the natives and whites.

The young Boer related a number of thrilling experiences which had befallen him, including the slaughter of his companions and the enemy, which took place about him time after time during his service.

B. F. KEITH'S

Nick's Skating Girls, a bevy of six beautiful, graceful and handsomely gowned Terpsichorean fairies on roller skates, will appear at B. F. Keith's theatre, week of January 26th. They come direct from the Winter Garden at Berlin, Germany, where they have been great favorites. This act is one of the most spectacular and pleasing of any offering of the kind ever attempted. The Skating Girls are really a "Ballet awheel" as a London critic once designated them.

Lillie Long, the English comedienne, who is called "Six Feet of Comedy" will also grace the bill. Miss Long stands more than six feet tall without her shoes. She makes no pretense of good looks, but succeeds in her one aim—that of making people laugh. Wearing her corsage bouquet on her back and combing her hair straight back from her forehead, Miss Long is no beauty, but she has winning ways.

The Great Howard, an excellent ventriloquist, will present "In the Dentist's Shop," where, with the aid of his funny dummies and his wonderful voice powers, he will play three roles at a time. There is a laugh in every line and The Great Howard demonstrates his ability to "throw his voice" from "cellar to garret."

The headline attraction of this big bill will be Robert Dailey and Company in a comedy sketch called "Our Bob". This sketch was written expressly for Mr. Dailey by Keller Mack and Frank Orth. It is the story of a cheerful chap who goes to make a call and is inveigled into an impromptu rehearsal. The woman in the case, hears a part of the rehearsal and becomes very jealous. The way in which "Our Bob" extricates himself from the dilemma, will form the plot of the sketch.

Lawton, the great juggler, who has no peer in his line will present many new feats. His skill is remarkable and his wonderful ability is thoroughly entertaining.

Thompson's Hemo

Health as a Business and Social Asset

All who through continual nervous strain of over-work are conscious of an absence of the pleasing and helpful feeling that should exist between them and their families, their friends and business associates, will find Thompson's Hemo a most wonderful health-giving beverage food that affords instant help. A tablespoonful of Hemo dissolved in water almost instantly drives away that feeling of fear and replaces it with a feeling of confidence and with that healthful vigorous feeling significant of the truly healthy body. Hemo is a food. It contains no drugs, but on the contrary, it contains in a concentrated form hemo-globin and beet-pectin secured by a process of artificially digesting prime beef. It also contains in a dry powdered form pure pasteurized milk as well as the concentrated food values of prime wheat and selected barley malt.

MORE DATA TO AID RATE RULING

Railroads Seeking Increased Pay Must Give Details.

PROVISIONS FOR ECONOMY.

New Information Sought Includes Revenues Derived From Transportation of Different Commodities and Interlocking Boards and Contracts—Seventy-nine Questions Submitted.

Washington.—Railroads of the United States seeking authority to increase their freight rates on an average of 3 per cent are requested in an order issued by the interstate commerce commission to submit detailed information concerning their financial operations.

An inquiry into the rate case was begun several weeks ago, and the railroads told their side. The shippers who are fighting the proposed increase are yet to be heard. The commission has gone over the evidence submitted by the railroads and has asked for supplemental data.

The commission's order issued does not foreshadow delay in the promulgation of a decision in the application for authority to increase railroad freight rates. It indicates that the commission does not intend to decide the case merely on the ex parte statements of railroad managers.

The new information sought by the commission covers these questions: Revenues derived from the transportation of different commodities and the practice of the railroads in granting to shippers special service or allowance in connection with transportation service.

Economy in methods of purchasing equipment, materials and supplies, their uses and practices in connection with various transportation operations. Financial history and transactions of carriers.

Conflicting interests, particularly the financial interests of directors, officers and employees in the business transactions to which the carriers are also parties.

Contracts made between the carriers and sleeping car and parlor car companies and the results of such contracts. Also general information not embraced in circulars heretofore issued by the commission.

Seventy-nine questions bearing on rates are submitted to the railroads. The answers must be made before Jan. 31.

"Elaborate and helpful contributions from the carriers' accounts have been submitted by the railroads with a view to diminishing net returns from operations and lessened net income," said the commission in an announcement explaining its inquiry. "These statements do not furnish fully the data deemed by the commission to be necessary to determine the general course to be pursued. The carriers are therefore further ordered and directed to furnish the commission at the earliest date possible the information called for and to verify such information under the oath of the officer under whose direction and supervision the returns are made."

The commission explains some of the various groups of questions that are asked carriers as follows:

"Questions regarding revenues and the conservation thereof are designed to secure data concerning the possibility of increasing the net revenues through economies in operations. These include possible savings in the purchase of materials and supplies through standardization and otherwise; also possible savings in the use of materials and supplies and particularly in the consumption of coal.

"There are also questions designed to secure further information as to the causes of increased operating costs and means of avoiding them. Certain of the questions are designed to secure data with a view of determining to what extent and under what circumstances the increase in the size and weight of equipment results in economy and greater net operating income."

TUNNEL 150 FEET TO ROB.
Bank Thieves Pierce Concrete Walls and Get $3,700.

San Francisco.—Cracksmen tunneled 150 feet and pierced the concrete walls of the First National Bank of Oroville vault.

They obtained $3,700 in silver, but were unable to blow open a steel safe in which was a much larger amount of gold and currency.

The base from which the robbers worked was the cellar of a building occupied only when lodge meetings were held at night.

FISH TOWS A RAFT.

A Hundred Pound Sturgeon Pulls Boat to Camp.

Boise, Ida.—Lashing a 100 pound sturgeon to a raft when he found it too heavy to carry and forcing the big member of the finny tribe to haul him into camp, where later the sturgeon was served up to a crew of hungry men, is the latest fish story that has reached Boise. It was brought to this city by Frank Maxwell, an engineer of the forest service with headquarters in Boise.

A large crew of men is stationed at the Ox Bow tunnel on the Snake river between Idaho and Oregon. A rancher named McPherson notified the foreman in charge of the camp that if he would send some of his men up he would give him a fish. Thinking that one man could manage a single fish without trouble, the foreman sent one of his Austrian laborers after it. When he arrived at the McPherson ranch, however, the Austrian found the sturgeon.

As the fish was still alive the Austrian built a raft from logs, leaving an opening in the middle for the fish to swim, and then lashed the sturgeon securely to the raft. Pushing the craft from the shore, he allowed the fish to propel him into camp, several miles below. A fish menu was served at the camp that night.

$797,948,900 FOR NAVIES.

Seven Powers Spent This Last Year on Building Battleships.

Washington.—Just $797,948,900 was expended last year in warship construction by the seven naval powers of the world, the United States standing second in the list with appropriations of $140,800,643. Great Britain spent $235,713,489, while Germany was not far behind the United States, with an expenditure of $111,270,025. Japan took last place, having spent only $48,105,151.

These facts appeared in the navy year book for 1913, issued as a public document by the senate naval committee.

Great Britain held her place as the first naval power with 2,591,291 tonnage, allowing for the completion of the vessels now built or building. Germany ranks second with a tonnage of 1,228,208; the United States is third with 921,844 tons; France fourth, with 876,155 and Japan fifth with 702,099.

ENDS STRIPED GARB IN NEW YORK PRISON

Woman Commissioner Also Wants Longer Sentences.

New York.—Commissioner Katherine B. Davis of the department of correction announced that she would abolish the striped uniforms for both men and women prisoners. The announcement followed a three hours' inspection of the city prison on Blackwell's island.

think how like a flock of zebras these men and women look running about. I don't believe you can encourage much self respect in a man or woman who is put into one of these ugly uniforms."

Dr. Davis said she would substitute the striped uniform for men with a gray cloth suit. Gingham of different hues will replace the women's uniforms.

Miss Davis believes the commitment system of the courts can be improved. "Sentences should be longer," said Dr. Davis. "The present sentence is frequently so short it does not act as a corrective."

Jackson, Miss.—Warren Pullen, a prominent business man of Jackson, was operated on here for appendicitis. He refused to take an anesthetic while the surgeons removed his appendix and stood the ordeal well.

Mr. Pullen's nerve during the operation was remarkable, and he watched the work of the surgeons with much interest.

FAVORS FEDERAL CONTROL OF WIRES

Representative Lewis Argues For His New Bill.

MANY SUPPORT THE PLAN.

Terms of Contracts With Government Would Make Purchase a Simple Matter and Companies Could Easily Be Forced to Sell—Success of Parcel Post Considered a Factor.

Washington.—Advocacy of government ownership of all telegraph and telephone lines; the introduction of a bill providing for such purchases by Uncle Sam; the action of the Bell Telephone system and Western Union Telegraph companies in voluntarily dissolving what the attorney general of the United States termed a trust, and the tremendous success of the parcel post system during the first year of its history have directed more attention toward the purchase of the wires than anything else in the history of the country.

The measure has both supporters and opponents. President Wilson's declaration that he has never said one way or the other whether he favored the bill or not was interesting. For years the question has been agitated off and on, here and there, but no concrete action has ever before been taken.

The purchase of the wires by the government would be a simple matter, provided, of course, the many millions necessary to buy the stock could be obtained. There is an old provision in the original franchises granted by the government that if the congress wishes at any time to buy the companies the directors will be forced to sell. These are the terms of the contracts with the government under which the companies are now operating. The price to be paid shall be determined by a board consisting of three men.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVID J. LEWIS.

The companies are to name one, the government one, and these two shall select the third.

Representative Lewis has introduced in the house a bill providing for the taking over of the wires by Uncle Sam. In introducing the bill Mr. Lewis said in part:

Investigation discloses that our telegraphic rates are the highest among twenty countries, running from 25 cents to $1, while in other countries they average about 12 cents, or a cent a word. The result is that we rank ninth as telegraph users, with one and one-tenth telegrams a person to our credit per annum, while in New Zealand, with the twelve cent rate and our price and wage levels, the use of the telegraph reaches as high as eight telegrams a person.

The telegraph service is a relatively declining institution, and it would be unwise to postulate it alone as a single service. For ten years in England the number of telegrams has been actually stationary.

Our toll and long distance telephone rates compare with those of other countries even less favorably than do our telegraph rates. The average interurban rate in Germany is but 4 cents; here it averages 20 cents. The long distance rates here are made on a scale of 6 mills a mile for a three minute conversation as against an average charge of about 7 mills a mile received by the railways for transporting a ton of freight.

We are one of three countries where the charge of a local call exceeds the letter postage rate.

The subscribers' rates in American cities, compared with continental cities, are about three times as high; for example, New York, where 5,400 calls, about fifteen a day, under a measured service tariff cost more than the four unlimited yearly rates of London, Paris, Berlin and Stockholm together.

$30,000 INSURANCE ON TREE.

Fence Guards Alligator Pear Which Nettle Owner $3,206.

Los Angeles, Cal.—The most valuable fruit tree in the world, an avocado, or alligator pear, the property of U. A. Woodworth, a Whittier rancher, has been insured for $30,000 by Lloyd's of London against fire or frost.

This tree last season netted Mr. Woodworth $3,206 in fruit and bud wood, the latter being used in an effort to propagate other alligator pear trees. To protect his prize tree from marauders Mr. Woodworth has built a lath fence around it thirty feet high.
